

Some Answers to Some Questions . .

Q - How much will dinner cost?

A - Our amazing kitchen volunteers will prepare a meal each week. Please contribute on a donation basis if you share in the costs. Recommended donation is min. $3 per plate.

Q - If I can't come that early for dinner, can I still come for study and groups?

A - Yes. For sure.

Q - If I can't make it by 6:20 PM, can I still have dinner?

A - Sorry, but once we stop serving at 6:15, dinner will close for the study and groups time.

Q - Will there be something for toddlers?

A - Yes. The Kids Group is for Toddler thru 5th Grade and will be set up to accommodate the wide age span. If needs arise with your child, you will be summoned to help. Infants will stay with the parent for study and group times. A nursery (unstaffed) with live video feed of the study is also available for parents should the child become too noisy or active.

Q - Will C-Life Bible Study be based on the Sunday mornings sermon?

A - No. So even if you missed Sunday's sermon, you won't be out of step with the C-Life study. The C-Life study will be somewhat brief (apx. 20 minutes), and will focus on practical life issues from a Biblical perspective..

Q - Can I bring friends who don't go to Church?

A - Absolutely. Some people even respond better to an informal gathering than to a "formal" church service. Their heart is probably hungry for Jesus and for fellowship too!

Q - Will I have to pray out loud when we break into the small groups after study?

A - No. You'll never be forced to pray out loud in C-Life, or in any of our other gatherings either. All will be welcome to participate, but no one will put pressure on you to do so.

Q - Will the Jr. Hi / Hi School Youth Group still have another "Youth Night"?

A - No. Youth Night will become part of C-Life. At times the youth be in the Adult study, but usually in a separate Youth study. Youth Group will always break into their own "small" group for discussion and prayer with our Youth Pastor. Our Youth Pastor will also schedule additional activities semi-frequently on Friday or Saturday.

What Is ... "C-Life"?

C-Life is a midweek gathering, held at the church on Wednesday evenings, from 5:45 - 7:15 PM.

C-Life provides an opportunity to come together to share a meal, to study some in God's Word, and to enjoy the dynamic of discussion, sharing, and prayer in a smaller group.

C-Life, unlike some of our other groups (men's, ladies', youth), is for the WHOLE church family - adults, youth, kids, families, singles... EVERYONE! We separate for smaller groups after we're together for dinner and study (except the kids who have their own after-dinner Group).

C-Life is a time in the middle of the week to REFRESH with God's Word and God's people, and sharing a level of partnership in the lives and faith of each other - and thus truly engage in what the Bible calls "fellowship."

C-Life is a place where we grow in living out the Bible idea of "church". The Church alive . . . Calvary Life . . . "C-Life".

"C-Life" Comes From an Old, Old Pattern

You could say that C-Life comes from the pattern of the early church in Acts 2. The first Christians met in larger gatherings as well as in smaller, more informal settings.

Their focus was always: Teach the Word; Pray; Fellowship; Break Bread together; and Praise. As they remained devoted to these things, the Lord grew the church, and did miraculous changes in the lives of many.

Realistically, some of those things work well in larger group gatherings - like Teaching and Praise; And some of those things - like Fellowship, Eating, and Prayer - occur MUCH BETTER in more informal settings, where interaction and personal connection can happen more readily.
